Tune—"America."

1 God bless our sacred cause!
   We plead for righteous laws,
   Our homes to shield.
   Our land has suffered long,
   From an accursed wrong,
   Whose roots are deep and strong,
   Nor do they yield

2 We plead! but all in vain;
   The people's deep-felt pain,
   Finds no redress.
   This deadly Upas tree
   Spreads out, despite our plea,
   And plants its rootlets free;
   For our distress.

3 The men we've placed in trust—
   Who should be true and just—
   Our laws to make,
   Do, at their party's word,
   Deny our plea, unheard;
   Nor by our prayers are stirred,
   Its power to break.

4 Now let the people come,
   And vote for God and home,
   And temperance laws!
   We'll be no more deceived;
   Our land must be retrieved,
   And from this curse relieved!
   God bless our cause!

How dear to this heart are the scenes of my childhood,
The orchard, the meadow, the deep-tangled wildwood,
D.C. The cot of my father, the dairy house nigh it,
2. I found it the source of an exquisite pleasure,
D.C. Then soon, with the emblem of truth overflowing,

When fond recollection presents to my view,
And ev'ry loved spot which my infancy knew;
And e'en the rude bucket that hung in the well.
For oft 'en at noon, when returned from the field,
The purest and sweetest that nature could yield.
And dripping with coolness, it rose from the well.

The moss-covered bucket that hung in the well.
The wide-spreading pond, and the mill which stood near it, The How ardent I seized it, with hands that were glowing, And bridge and the rock where the cataract fell;

quick to the white-pebbled bottom it fell,

3 How sweet from the green mossy rim to receive it,
As poised on the curb it inclined to my lips.
Not a full flowing goblet could tempt me to leave it,
Though filled with the nectar that Jupiter sips.
And now far removed from the loved situation,
The tear of regret will intrinsively swell,
As fancy reverts to my father's plantation,
And sighs for the bucket which hung in the well.—CHO.

To Dr. L. Robinson:

Dear Sir:—Having known you for a long time and having had dental work done by you a number of times, as has also my wife, I take pleasure in saying that your work has always been perfectly satisfactory and have no hesitation in recommending you to my friends. I know your rule is to save every tooth possible instead of extracting it, and you have to my knowledge shown great skill in a number of cases in saving teeth where other Dentists advised extracting them. Battle Hymn of the Republic.

1 Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword; His truth is marching on.

2 I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps, They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps; I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps; His day is marching on.

3 I have read a fiery gospel writ in burnished rows of steel; "As ye deal with my contemners, so with you my grace shall deal;"

Let the Hero, born of woman, crush the serpent with his heel, Since God is marching on.

4 He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat: He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment seat; Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant, my feet! Our God is marching on.

5 In the beauty of the lillies Christ was born across the sea, With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me: As He died to make men holy, let us die to make men free, While God is marching on.

Rouse then, freemen, come from hill and valley; Fathers, brothers, earnest, brave and strong! Onward, forward,

2. Strong to meet the foe. Marching on we go, While our cause we know Must prevail; Shield and banner bright Glimmering in the light, Battling by Thy grace; When the battle's done, And the victory won, May we wear the crown Before Thy face.

3. Oh! Thou God of all, Hear us when we call; Help us one and all

Where is my Boy to-night?

1. Where is my wand'ring boy tonight—The boy of my tenderest care, The boy that was once my joy and light, The child of my love and face was so bright, no heart more true, And none was so sweet as prayer? face was so bright, no heart more true, And none was so sweet as prat'-tle and smile made homea joy, And life was a mer-ry chime!
   bring him to me with all his blight. And tell him I love him still ...

2. Once he was pure as morning dew, As he kneel'd at his mother's knee; No where is my boy to-night? Oh! why will she longer stay?
   where is my wandering girl? Oh! where is my wandering girl?
   my heart is wild
   For my own darling child!
   Oh! where is my girl to-night?

Chorus. Not too fast.

O where is my boy to-night? O where is my boy to-night? My heart o'erflows, for I love him, he knows; O where is my boy to-night?

Where is my Girl to-night?

1 Where is my wandering girl to-night. My daughter so bright and gay? [light:
   once the pride of my life, my heart de-
   Oh! why will she longer stay?
   Oh! where is my wandering girl? Oh! where is my wandering girl?
   Oh, my heart is wild
   For my own darling child!
   Oh! where is my girl to-night?

2 Low and sweet was the tempter's song That led the poor child astray.

3 Oh, the days are drear and the nights are
   For my darling is far away.—Chro.
   3 come back, erring child, to mother's heart,
   And wander no more in sin;
   For the world is cold, and thy life is dark,
   And demons rejoice therein.—Chro.
   4 Oh, list to thy Savior calling, "Come,"
   And trust to His guiding care,
   "In a truer life,
   yet be true."—Chro.

Oh, Where are the Reapers?

EBEN E. RESFORD

Moderato

1. Oh, where are the reapers that garner in, The sheaves of the good
2. Go out in the by-ways and search them all, The wheat may be there,
3. The fields all are rip'ning and far and wide The world now is waiting,
4. So come with your sickles, ye sons of men, And gather together from the fields of sin; With sickles of truth must the work be done, though the weeds are tall; Then search in the high-way, and pass none by, ing the harvest tide; But reapers are few, and the work is great, er the gold-en grain; Toil on till the Lord of the harvest come,

CHORUS.

And no one may rest till the "harvest home."
But gatherer from all for the home on high.
And much will be lost should the harvest wait.
Where are the reapers!

Then share ye His joy in the "harvest home."

Oh, who will come And share in the glory of the "harvest home?" Oh, who will help us to garner in The sheaves of good from the fields of sin.

Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness are the birthright of every man. The strong arm of the Old Union Mutual will be a fortress of defense against the common enemy, poverty, the destroyer of your birthright.

ORGANIZED 1848. UNION MUTUAL LIFE INS. CO., OF PORTLAND, MAINE.

Opens to the public its record of forty-six years and invites attention to its present condition.

It has nothing to conceal. The insured and the management have never had separate or diverse interest. Both have sought the same end.

The most insurance at the smallest cost compatible with the safety of the investments and security of the claim at maturity.

The Union Mutual Life Insurance Company is the only company in the U. S. operating under the Maine Non-Forfeiture Law.

Millions of dollars would have been saved to families in the State of Kentucky if the insured had possessed a Union Mutual contract.

The importance of this fact was recently demonstrated when upon the death of a young attorney in Cincinnati, it was found that the estate was deprived of a large amount of money owing to the fact of non-payment of premium.

Under the Maine Non-Forfeiture Law, this money would have been paid to the estate by the Union Mutual.

We have sample policies of all kinds that we will be pleased to mail to those desiring information on the subject.

Our policies are payable in cash at the end of fifteen or twenty years.

Persons of good character and snap, wanted as solicitors. Address,

Tune, "Watchman."
DR. LOWELL MASON.

Friends of Temp'rance, welcome here, Cheerful are our hearts to-day;

Tell us—we would gladly hear—How our cause speeds on its way.

Here we pledge our-selves a-new, Not to touch the drunk-ard's drink;

Proving faith-ful, proving true, We will from no du-ty shrink.

Nearer, My God, to Thee.

Tune, "Bethany."

1. Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee!
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me,
Still all my song shall be—
|| Nearer, my God, to Thee; ||
Nearer to Thee!

2. There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me
In mercy given:
Angels to beckon me
|| Nearer, God, to Thee; ||
Nearer to Thee!

Tune, "Old Hundred"

Praise God from whom all blessings flow, Praise Him who heals the drunkard's woe;

Praise Him who leads the temperance host, Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
1. A goodly thing it is to meet, In friendship's circle bright,
   Where nothing stains the pleasure sweet, Nor dims the radiant light.
   No happier meeting earth can see Than where the joy we prove,
   Of Temperance and Purity, Fidelity and Love.

2. Good night, good night to every one, Be each heart free from care;
   Let every brother seek his home, And find contentment there.
   May joy beam with tomorrow's sun, And every prospect shine,
   While wife and friends laugh merrily Without the aid of wine.
